“ Dearest Lou, Mack, and Brenda and families, we are so saddened by the loss of Aunt Estelle. Even though she and Uncle Denny made their life on FI many years ago and Dad made his here in LA, we still felt connected over the years. We last saw Aunt Estelle a few months before Dad died; she wasn't able to attend his funeral, but we cherished our time with her on that visit prior. She looked so much like Dad and Granddaddy Armstrong! We will miss her kind and gentle spirit, her laughter, and her ready smile. Mother (Aunt Pigeon) will be 84 on Monday, 10-01, and is not able to travel long distances any more, but she would be there if she could for you. Please, keep in touch with June - she passes along the Pol family information to us - a blessing for sure. You are all in our thought and prayers, Aunt Pigeon, Jan, Gary, Randy, and Tish and families.
