“ Hope and family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. Maybe it will help to know what a tremendous impact Marc made shaping our choir these past years and how he has left some very large shoes to fill. We will all miss him very much.

“ May the God of all comfort wrap His loving arms around each of you as you travel this road of sorrow. May you feel the presence of our sweet Saviour as you've never known before and come to truly know The One who feels the sorrow we feel and carries us in our grief. Marc will be greatly missed. He brought a lot of joy and laughter to many, but especially to the kids he worked with on Sunday. I know Jamie and the other children are much saddened by the loss of Marc. God Bless each of you. Know that many are praying for you and you are much loved.

“ Our thoughts and prayers for sweet peace that passes all understanding are with the family during this time. Our joyous celebrations are with Marc as he joins in singing around the throne of the Most High. Wish I were there with him. Love to all, Blenda and Dale Simms

“ As much as we all loved Marc Greene, is it any wonder that God desired to call His son to Him? I believe that God calls some of His servants Home when He cannot bear to be apart from them any longer. Marc was one of these special children. Marc was a friend and mentor to me at a time when I so badly needed it. His loss is one I feel deeply, I am eager to see him again on day on that Heavenly shore, where once again we shall sing together in worship of our Lord, when my eyes also behold the risen Lord. Until then, my brother Marc, until then...
To Hope, Kelli, Joanna, Andrew, Bob, and to all the rest who knew and loved him, I thank you for sharing him with me, and my prayers are with you.
